

ZEN

Titanium Folding Wheelchair

approved by German Federation of Health Insurance Societies, and acquired orthotic product registration number (18.50.03.0150- Rollstuhl- Titania)

It is Zen suitable for the Europe that is the assimilation of highly valued expertise in titanium processing and technique to fabricate a folding wheelchair which is in demand in Japan. Zen will support your comfortable life with Its foldable structure, robustness and durability just like a rigid wheelchair.

Module structure for various kinds of people

Very convenient foldable structure

- The whole frame is made by titanium which makes ZEN very robust, durable, and comfortable to use.
- Titanium frame and original parts make ZEN accomplish lightweight.
- Titanium is rustproof, so it is impervious to corrosion even if used for a long period of time.
- Titanium hardly causes people metal allergy so Zen can be used without concern.